

FROM FINCHTOWN

Editor's Note. The News this week has received two letters from Finchtown. Neither was signed, nor did the name of the author of either appear on the envelope. Both of them are printed below:

Mrs. Hazel and three of her children are in their sick bed.

Mr. George Hartson is very sick.

The mother of Mr. Hudson, Mrs. Dennis, is deceased and was buried Saturday afternoon.

Miss Oma McCallie was shopping at a local drugstore.

Agnes Ruth and Miss Winnie Finch are severely improving after a severe attack of the flu.

The student body of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lawrence and Friday night the turned back page at the Normal school Saturday afternoon.

Beth Wilcox and Mrs. Odell Clegg were added to the list at the Normal school Saturday afternoon.

Miss Madel Atwell spent Saturday morning visiting her mother.

and Mrs. Burkhardt motored to Woodville Sunday afternoon.

Beth Griffin of Durant filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday and Sunday night, and the services were well attended. Our Sunday school is fast improving.

Edmund Post and wife Irene, nee McAlberry, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barker Davis Sunday.

Another high school will render a Thanksgiving program Wednesday night.

The Red Cross work at this place has begun again, and many are busy knitting sweaters and socks.

Miss Madel Atwell spent Saturday morning visiting her mother.

WSS

FROM YUBA

Mrs. Annie Stowers and Mr. Bell Miller were visiting in Yuba Sunday.

Joe Martin has the flu.

Most of the people around here are killing hogs while the cold weather is off.

Some of the men folk are busy hauling wood and building fires.

Miss Florence Berlin was in Yuba this day.

Our Rock City little girl died last Friday and was buried Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris have a very sick child, but latest reports indicate some better.

On account of the bad weather Mr. Barker hasn't got his house finished yet.

J. E. Montgomery and wife are at Wadsworth for a few days. Mr. Montgomery is doing some carpenter work at that place.

WSS

FROM CALERA

Misses Marion Colvert and Betty Perry were visitors to Durant Tuesday night.

Miss Effie Newell, teacher in the Calera high school, is sick with pneumonia. Miss Weeks, another teacher, has the flu.

Misses Loucelle Duncan and Leonie Grenne are teaching in places of Misses Newell and Weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Penn spent last Sunday in Sherman with relatives and friends.

Lawson Sims of Atoka was the guest of Miss Loucelle Duncan Saturday evening and Sunday.

The death angel visited our community and took away Little Annie Mae Hanson, and also Little Hazel Skinner.

Davis Syler of this place has been sick with the flu.

Mr. Boyd and daughter, Effie, are the only ones.

The French girls are not doing so well this week.

Ellen McMillender has recovered from an attack of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheat have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Tom Woods.

Little Juanita McMaster is sick this week.

Bro. Griffin of Durant preached here last Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

Gaber Sutton spent one night of the past week with his mother, Mrs. Craig.

Mrs. Streetman has been real sick during the past week.

Mariam McMillender was the guest of Mr. Istim, last Thursday night.

Oliver Skinner is now making his home with his uncle Tom Moore.

Irene Hansen is real low at this writing.

Carry Davidson was a Finchtown visitor this week.

Hue Wolden was visiting the sick at Mr. McMillender's one day this week.

WSS

FROM BENNINGTON

Mr. Honka, of Muskogee, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Festus Snowback.

We are losing another of our good citizens, in the person of Festus Shoemaker, who has accepted a position at Haskell, Okla., and is already on the job. The family will move soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan are making preparations to leave. Mrs. Sullivan is teacher in one of the grades, and Mr. Sullivan is bookkeeper for Mr. & Mrs. Smith. They moved here last summer, and have made many friends who will regret to see them depart.

The snow of Monday morning was a surprise, as we rarely have snow this early. Enough fell during the day to clutter things in ermine for a mist which came and melted.

The smoke house has fallen heir to some fine porkers the past cold days. B. Shoemaker killed a nice one which weighed about 360.

Last Sunday those present at the Presbyterian church witnessed the baptism of five babies. The little ones were presented by the mothers. Two of the fathers are in France. It was a beautiful ceremony and one which all Presbyterians prize.

Rev. Firebaugh was away most of last week attending the Synod at Oklahoma City.

Mike LeFlour of Kiamichi was sick but found with friends here on Saturday.

Edmund Loring was looking after interests in Durant Monday.

Walter Billy and wife were in Duran

ton Tuesday and Tuesday.

Mr. Human, one of the primary teachers, is quite sick and left Tuesday for her home in Duran-

This community was shocked to learn of the death of Thannie Nickles, a son of Mrs. Nickles, which occurred Monday at his home near Sallisaw. He leaves besides his mother, wife and several sisters, to whom were extended our sympathies. Misses Nickles is said to be very ill.

Walter Billy and wife were in Duran-

ton Tuesday and Tuesday.

Misses Kate and Susie Gladwin appear in the recent casualty lists under the heading "dead from accident and other causes." Details are lacking.

The heads of the city observed Thanksgiving as a holiday and the day before Christmas.

Outrage number of Bexar county boys are returning home from the various camps having been discharged from the service. The demobilization is being made as steady and as unexpected to come as every day.

Mrs. Henry Williams is visiting Calera.

Perry Sims, who joined the Army, is home on a ten-day furlough. Mrs. Denton and daughter, Kate, were in Denison Tuesday.

Mrs. Asa Davidson was visiting her sister in Atoka last week.

The first number of the Lycée course was rendered at the school house Wednesday night.

WSS

FROM PLATTER

Sam Farman of Duran-

ton is visiting friends here this week.

Mrs. G. O. Rees left this week for Goodland, Okla., where she will spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Sally.

Ed. Guess was a business visitor to Denison Saturday.

Mr. Haugan and family of near Dallas, have moved to this place and will make their future home here.

Mack Petty is remodeling his residence, which when completed will be very much improved.

Mrs. G. O. Rees and daughter,

Mrs. Cambron, were business visitors in Madill last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Mr.

and Mrs. Burkhardt motored to Woodville Sunday afternoon.

Beth Griffin of Duran-

ton filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday and Sunday night, and the services were well attended. Our Sunday school is fast improving.

Edmund Post and wife Irene, nee McAlberry, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barker Davis Sunday.

Another high school will render a Thanksgiving program Wednesday night.

The Red Cross work at this place has begun again, and many are busy knitting sweaters and socks.

Miss Madel Atwell spent Saturday morning visiting her mother.

Agnes Ruth and Miss Winnie Finch are severely improving after a severe attack of the flu.

The student body of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lawrence and Friday night the turned back page at the Normal school Saturday afternoon.

Beth Wilcox and Mrs. Odell Clegg were added to the list at the Normal school Saturday afternoon.

Miss Madel Atwell spent Saturday morning visiting her mother.

WSS

FROM YUBA

and Mrs. Burkhardt motored to Woodville Sunday afternoon.

Beth Griffin of Duran-

ton filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday and Sunday night, and the services were well attended. Our Sunday school is fast improving.

Edmund Post and wife Irene, nee McAlberry, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barker Davis Sunday.

Another high school will render a Thanksgiving program Wednesday night.

The Red Cross work at this place has begun again, and many are busy knitting sweaters and socks.

Miss Florence Berlin was in Yuba this day.

Our Rock City little girl died last Friday and was buried Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris have a very sick child, but latest reports indicate some better.

On account of the bad weather Mr. Barker hasn't got his house finished yet.

J. E. Montgomery and wife are at Wadsworth for a few days. Mr. Montgomery is doing some carpenter work at that place.

WSS

FROM CALERA

Misses Marion Colvert and Betty Perry were visitors to Durant Tuesday night.

Miss Effie Newell, teacher in the Calera high school, is sick with pneumonia. Miss Weeks, another teacher, has the flu.

Misses Loucelle Duncan and Leonie Grenne are teaching in places of Misses Newell and Weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Penn spent last Sunday in Sherman with relatives and friends.

Lawson Sims of Atoka was the guest of Miss Loucelle Duncan Saturday evening and Sunday.

The death angel visited our community and took away Little Annie Mae Hanson, and also Little Hazel Skinner.

Davis Syler of this place has been sick with the flu.

Mr. Boyd and daughter, Effie, are the only ones.

The French girls are not doing so well this week.

Ellen McMillender has recovered from an attack of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheat have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Tom Woods.

Little Juanita McMaster is sick this week.

Bro. Griffin of Durant preached here last Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

Gaber Sutton spent one night of the past week with his mother, Mrs. Craig.

Mrs. Streetman has been real sick during the past week.

Mariam McMillender was the guest of Mr. Istim, last Thursday night.

Oliver Skinner is now making his home with his uncle Tom Moore.

Irene Hansen is real low at this writing.

Carry Davidson was a Finchtown visitor this week.

Hue Wolden was visiting the sick at Mr. McMillender's one day this week.

WSS

FROM BENNINGTON

Mr. Honka, of Muskogee, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Festus Snowback.

We are losing another of our good citizens, in the person of Festus Shoemaker, who has accepted a position at Haskell, Okla., and is already on the job. The family will move soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan are making preparations to leave. Mrs. Sullivan is teacher in one of the grades, and Mr. Sullivan is bookkeeper for Mr. & Mrs. Smith. They moved here last summer, and have made many friends who will regret to see them depart.

The snow of Monday morning was a surprise, as we rarely have snow this early. Enough fell during the day to clutter things in ermine for a mist which came and melted.

The smoke house has fallen heir to some fine porkers the past cold days. B. Shoemaker killed a nice one which weighed about 360.

Last Sunday those present at the Presbyterian church witnessed the baptism of five babies. The little ones were presented by the mothers. Two of the fathers are in France. It was a beautiful ceremony and one which all Presbyterians prize.

Rev. Firebaugh was away most of last week attending the Synod at Oklahoma City.

Mike LeFlour of Kiamichi was sick but found with friends here on Saturday.

Edmund Loring was looking after interests in Durant Monday.

Walter Billy and wife were in Duran-

ton Tuesday and Tuesday.

Mr. Human, one of the primary teachers, is quite sick and left Tuesday for her home in Duran-

This community was shocked to learn of the death of Thannie Nickles, a son of Mrs. Nickles, which occurred Monday at his home near Sallisaw. He leaves besides his mother, wife and several sisters, to whom were extended our sympathies. Misses Nickles is said to be very ill.

Walter Billy and wife were in Duran-

ton Tuesday and Tuesday.

Misses Kate and Susie Gladwin appear in the recent casualty lists under the heading "dead from accident and other causes." Details are lacking.

The heads of the city observed Thanksgiving as